Continuing Education at Fieldhome

Cortlandt Manor, NY, November 19, 2010 -- As part of Fieldhome's commitment to offer continuing educational programs to its employees, Sr. Peter Lillian, of the AVILA Institute of Gerontology, is coming to the Fieldhome campus to present:

Resident Centered Care — Working with Dementia

Through this 5-hour seminar, Fieldhome caregivers will:

- Learn the necessary steps to develop and assess dementia programs
- Witness and understand the limitations of dementia through Dementia Simulation
- Learn how to build a strong team to successfully implement dementia programs.

The program's goal is to enrich both the lives of the residents as well as the caregivers. This seminar will be taped for future employees and those who cannot attend the live seminar.

The Avila Institute of Gerontology provides high quality educational programs on Gerontology and related topics throughout the United States. For more information on the Institute, visit www.avilainstitute.org.

FIELDHOME is a not-for-profit community of caring services that includes Field Home–Holy Comforter, a rehabilitation treatment center and skilled nursing facility; The Seabury, which offers luxury assisted living and memory support; and The Early Learning Center at Fieldhome for child care.
