

Where Wishes
Come True
page 9

Angie's
Crowns Idol
page 12

Yorktown,
L/P Fall in Title Tilts
page 16

The Yorktown Examiner

twitter.com/yorktownexaminer

FREE

Covering Yorktown Heights, Crompond, Shrub Oak, Mahogany Lake and Jefferson Valley

March 2 - March 8, 2010

SMALL NEWS IS BIG NEWS

Volume 2, Issue 13

Fieldhome Resident Celebrates 100th Birthday

Gena M. Piccinini, a resident at The Seabury at Fieldhome in Yorktown, turned 100 years old on Feb. 17. Piccinini celebrated her centennial with a party at Fieldhome. She was presented with a citation from the Yorktown Supervisor's Office.

Piccinini was born on Feb. 17, 1910, in Brooklyn, New York. She received her master's degree in education from Columbia University, and was a teacher in the New York City school district for many years before becoming the Dean of Discipline at Walton High School in the Bronx. Piccinini is proud to say she was one of the first women in the area to get a driver's license. In fact, she was still driving up until just a few years ago. Piccinini enjoys art, listening to music, and visiting with her friends and family. She moved into The Seabury at Fieldhome this past fall, where she resides with her younger sister, Dora Del Savio.

The Seabury is a luxury assisted-living residence located on the 100-acre Fieldhome campus. Fieldhome, which is celebrating 130 years of service to the community, also comprises a 200-bed skilled nursing and rehab facility, Field Home – Holy Comforter, and a child-care center known as The Early Learning Center at Fieldhome.

